The Minister of Labour, Dr. Glora Josephthal, said yesterday that he was opposed to an "equal pay for equal work" law because it would mean that a good many women workers acould lose their jobs. As it is, 8s per cent of women workers received the same pay as men doing equivalent jobs. This figure can by increased by gradual progress, rather than by law.

Dr. Josephthal was replying to motions for the agenda by three women members of the Knesset—Mrs. Ruth Hektin (Ahdut Ha'avoda), Mrs. Handan (Mapai), and Mrs. Emma Talmi (Mapam). The three proposed measures for increasing the number of women in the labour force.

The motions were referred to the Labour Committee.
